"Why will Cleveland be nominated?"

Because the people want him. They cheer his name in every section of the country. He forced the tariff issue to the front by his memorable message, and the people have sustained his position in an overwhelming manner. I know that he did not travel from state to state making campaign speeches, but the people are not criticising him for this, if the politicians are. The latter will fall in line in due time. BAD NEWS FROM NEBRASKA

Lexinoton, Ky., Nov. 12.—Tuesday morning before breakfast Dr. B. Gorham, a retired physician and prominent citizen of this county, went out to his barn-yard to see about feeding his steck. His negro farm hand, Will Wilson, was at the barn, the doctor fid not come in for breakfast and the cook went to the barn to tell him the meal was ready. When she got there, she found the doctor lying stead with a bullet hole in his chest, and Wilson running over the hill.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Nov. 15.—The negro who murdered the wealthy Kentucky farmer, Dr. B. Gorham, on Tucsday, came to Lexington Wednesday and surrendered to the authorities. He claims that his victim was advancing on him with a stick, when he drew his pistol and killed him. There are some appreheusions of a lynching party from the country.

That May Retire the Present Company.

NEW YOR, Nov. 17.—From telegrams published in Panama, it appears that the Colombia senate at Bogota, has approved, on its third reading, the prothe capital raised by a syndicate of Russian capitalists and some prominent. New York railroad magnates, among whom is mentioned Henry Villard, to build a railroad from Puget sound to Alaska. It is expected the line will be located next spring.

The company has a capital of $150,000,000, and it is understood that a line of ferryboats will be put on to carry trains across the sea, where they will connect with a Russian railroad across the desert wastes of Silveria. The latter part of the project is still uncertain, but a road to Juneau will be commenced early in the spring. Besides the seal fisheries, mines and lumber it is claimed there are coal banks of the Alaskan coast that are practically inexhaustible. Mr. Hazzard predicts that in five years the great fish industry of the Athantic coast will be transferred to north Pacific waters.
